Adoboloco

We're a small family run company that makes super premium gourmet hot sauces in Hawaii & Portland, Oregon. Adoboloco Hawaiian Hot Sauce Company sprouted from a home school gardening project in Maui, Hawaii. Now the hot sauce business involves the whole Parsons family and is being used as a teaching platform for their children's education. Adoboloco partners with small local farms to source the fresh ingredients for their unique and delicious sauces. We've been hand crafting our artisan hot sauces professionally for almost 4 years now. We look forward to many more with your continued support.
