

Checkpoint

Checkpoint is a world leading information security company. AntiTheft project is part of a personal control center, by which we designed a system that monitors the exact location of a personal laptop, and delivers screenshots and webcam images from the device.

