

Success Story

DeAnn Thorley Design

Website Design/Development Services

Challenge

Some industries are more visual than others but interior design is about as visual as it gets. DeAnn Thorley is a talented, experience interior designed based in the beautiful red rock and mountain landscapes of Southern Utah. She wanted a website that captured her style, attention to detail, expertise, and provided a showcase of her body of impressive work to prospective clients.

Implementation

This project was a bit atypical as design was imperative to the SEO factors we normally consider in a project. In addition to the portfolio, we also worked on created a unique style for the site to showcase the brand and provide an enticing press coverage page. We focused on delivering a design that even the most fastidious of interior designers would love.

Results-Driven

We aim to satisfy even the most fastidious of clients including interior designers. DeAnn was delighted with the result. - Working with Jason at Ascent Internet was an awesome and very smooth experience. Thanks you for taking my vision and putting it to life. I would highly recommend Ascent Internet. - DeAnn Thorley
