Earthbound are a family business with over 30 years' experience within the textile manufacturing trade.

EarthboundUK is family owned business taking the dog accessories world by storm providing authentic British design and production of the highest quality to trade customers. At Nettl, we helped them develop their online shop. With integrated registration forms, complex layers of security and eye catching product display, the site's aim is to attract new business partnerships within the trade industry and raise awareness of the comprehensive range of products Earthbound proudly manufactures.
