Customer Case Study

The largest stock exchange in its market, establishing new and modern approaches for the business. It aims at strengthening the financial market infrastructure through innovative solutions, and encourages local expansion opportunities through targeted investments in an array of sectors and industries

Requirements

Data residency for Salesforce

- Local processing and storing of what is considered regulated data, such as personal information
- Seamless integration with Salesforce, maintaining functionality, searching, indexing, and ease-of-use of the platform
- Integration with third-party add-ons and backend legacy systems

Solution

InCountry for Salesforce add-on was deployed, regulated data was mapped to be stored, processed and consumed locally. Access controls prevented access from outside the country, except to the Salesforce cloud

- InCountry for Salesforce was deployed in a high availability configuration
- Full The system was integrated with real-time web services, customer VisualForce pages with Apex

Result

Customer compliant with industry regulations and standards

- Full local processing and storying of data on a field-by-field basis while assuring exclusive control over the encryption key