Striiipes

Based in Paris, Striiipes.com is a young and dynamic fashion and lifestyle brand, offering a new point of view on apparel and fashion accessories for both men and women. We produce limited edition designer goods that are unique, inventive and practical with a fun twist. We always seek to fulfill the following values when selecting our products : Originality, humor and inventiveness.. Beyond the functionality, our products trigger imagination. Most of the products available on the Striiipes store are designed and produced by the Striiipes team in our workshop in Paris, France. This enables us to cut the middlemen in order to offer great quality products at an affordable price. Arthur Lhermitte, Striiipes' artistic director, designs exquisite yet audacious fashion products to fit modern lifestyles. Using the stripes as a visual manifesto, the products range from small fashion accessories for your everyday life to delicately crafted limited editions. All Striiipes' products carry the same values: a consistent design, with great attention to details while always adding a touch of wittiness. Visit us regularly to see the evolution of our ranges. We are in a constant state of flux, we attempt to disregard rigid definitions.
