

Teco Energy

"Committed to achieving zero incidents and sustainable operations, TECO Energy harnesses the power of ProcessMAP's analytics engine to prevent incidents and identify environmental hazards. Smart workflows and process automation ensure that no critical steps are missed, while seamless integration with other systems provides a holistic view of safety performance."

Case Study

At TECO Energy, safety outweighs all other considerations. To fuel its journey to zero incidents, ProcessMAP delivers real-time insights to prevent incidents.

Results

- Established standardized incident reporting, investigation, and corrective actions management processes
- Provides real-time dashboards to increase transparency and company-wide visibility to safety performance indicators
- Optimizes employee wellness through preventative programs, including Occupational Health and Ergonomics Management
- Supports sustainable operations with qualitative assessments, sampling and exposure monitoring, and risk analysis Talk to an expert +1-954-908-4000 Em

About TECO Energy

- TECO Energy is an energy-related holding company with regulated electric and gas utilities in Florida and New Mexico.
- Annual Revenue: $2.7 Billion
- Number of Employees: 3,700+
- Headquarters: Tampa, FL

