

WATER STANDARD

WATER STANDARD is an award winning global water treatment specialist and recognized leader in delivering innovative desalination, water-based enhanced oil recovery and produced water solutions to the Water and onshore and offshore Oil & Gas Industries. The company uses proprietary designs and processes employing proven technologies incorporated into modular offshore and onshore customized water treatment systems. WATER STANDARD has recently been very active in the design and development of a number of groundbreaking offshore EOR projects.

WATER STANDARD's H2OCEAN product line positions them as a global water treatment specialist committed to providing innovative solutions for the world's growing water needs.

WATER STANDARD's strategic partnerships and affiliations with leading marine, water technology, offshore services and chemical manufacturers provide superior products and services. WATER STANDARD provides products and services to super majors, majors, and national oil companies across the world.

Water Standard is based out of Houston, Texas.

Visit the WATER STANDARD website for more information