

AidData

In collaboration with Development Gateway

As part of the Development Gateway team we worked on designing the AidData website, data portal and map experience which tracks and visualizes aid for development.

The dashboard features aggregate data, aid by sector and timeline charts by sector. Filtering allows the user to see detailed financial information, financial flows and projects related to the displayed aid.

Services

User Experience Design, Web Design, Publication/Print Design, Front-End Web Development

