A global provider of alternative legal and business solutions leverages Botminds to extract data from ESG disclosures with intelligent automation.

ABOUT CLIENT

- Empowers law firms, corporations, professional services organizations, and financial services institutions to deliver predictable outcomes.

- Headquartered in the US, the client is a global leader in alternative legal, business, and research support services for law firms, corporations, and professional services firms.

- Spans a wide range of litigation, contract lifecycle management and business enablement solutions.

BUSINESS SCENARIO

- The client had to review and process 3000+ ESG reports from a global environmental disclosure website within the given time frame.

- Onboarding and training employees within a short time were challenging, given the team size.

- Faced difficulty in accessing the global environmental disclosure system due to restricted access. Manually create credentials.

BUSINESS CHALLENGES

01

Human-intensive process

Manually processing the documents to gather information hinders speed, productivity, and accuracy.

02

Onboarding and training

Onboarding and training the team to review multiple company information in a short duration was very chaotic.

03

Restricted access

Faced difficulty accessing multiple documents from the global environmental disclosure site due to restricted access.

04

Delivery within deadline

3000+ ESG documents to be reviewed and processed with speed and greater accuracy within the stipulated time frame.
