

The Bournstream Trust

A play and picnic site for children with special needs

The Bournstream Trust

The Bournstream Trust is a unique outdoor adventure playsite on the Cotswold edge, roughly between Gloucester and Bristol - half a mile out of Wotton-Under-Edge, set in a hidden valley bordered by fields and woodland. Its dedicated use is for children and young people with disabilities or special needs - for their families, carers, respite groups and special schools.

The Bournstream Trust approached Evergreen to produce a website to fall in line with their current branding as a place for those interested to find out more about the charity and the work it does in the area.

"Continued Support Down the Years"

"I wanted to thank you, as a business, for your continued support for our small, local charity for disabled children.

"Thanks to Evergreen, down the years, we have a colourful & informative website as our 'shop window' & despite being a small-scale organisation (run almost entirely by volunteers) your input has helped us improve our communications & present a professional & welcoming front to families, carers & special schools.

"Today was a great example of the pride your company takes & of the time given us in your expertise."

Mark Pasco, Chair & Volunteer for the Trust

Click here to visit
www.bournstream.org.uk

Bournstream

“ Thanks to Evergreen ... we have a colourful & informative website ... despite being a small-scale organisation your input has helped us improve our communications & present a professional & welcoming front to families, carers & special schools.

Mark Pasco, Chair & Volunteer for the Trust
The Bournstream Trust

