How Core Helped Improve Internal Enterprise Connectivity

Clients Challenge

To improve the connection and sharing of data between the different departments of their enterprise
- Combine different departments data and make available to all
- Small enough that it is feasible
- Large enough that people can get behind it

Solution

Creating a structured data warehouse for their enterprise along with

- Road map, leading the client to the desired outcome
- Scorecard, resulting in precise rankings
- Book of business, by member, account type, and product
- Dashboard, by line of business – workflow breakdown

Impact on client's business

The company hopes to see

- Faster turnaround – 10 days later
- Self service – Pull or receive data without IT assistance
- Accuracy – More consistency and transparency, checks and balances to allow the end-user to trust the data
