Oysters XO are innovative oyster chefs providing a unique culinary experience.

The company began its journey in Amsterdam before heading to New York City in 2012. Today, it offers catering services as well as a product line including premium oyster kits. Roaming oyster shuckers – known as Oyster Girls and Oyster Guys – are popular additions at events from bar mitzvahs to weddings, shucking oysters with impressive skill and delicious results.

“The load speed...rocketed to 85% and beyond.”

Oysters XO approached WooExperts CartKnitter to optimize its website's speed in order to improve online sales. Removing an extensive backlog of cached files and integrating with Cloudflare (among other procedures) proved decisive. “The load speed...rocketed from a mere sub 60 to a whopping 85% and beyond.”
