

Website Development for Supermercados Rey

Supermercados Rey is a company dedicated to providing food through its chain of stores throughout the country.

The New Website

For this project, we were in charge of developing the new company website, adaptable to all devices. The goal of the new development was to offer customers a more dynamic and user-friendly user experience that provides branch and offer information in a simple way.

