SCM solution for Clinical Trial Workflow

About the client:

Client is a professional consulting firm providing techno-functional services to research divisions of pharmaceutical companies. It is one of the forefront players in development and growth of the clinical trials Information Technology industry, spanning across drug randomization and inventory or shipment.

Business Requirements:

- Swift development and delivery of products while accommodating customer requirements
- Defect fixing while ensuring product reliability and integrity

Solution:

- Extended development arm tightly coupled with the client IT team.
- Product re-engineering.
- Quick defect resolution using standard process.

Tools and Technologies:

Ruby on Rails, JavaScript (Angular JS), CSS, HTML and PostgreSQL

Healthcare & Life Sciences