

Client Management Consulting

Client provides development, implementation and management consulting services to help public and private sector clients solve complex business problems.

- Consulted in all areas of information system security, including physical security, administrative security, personnel security, computer security, operations security, and industrial security
- Utilized processes within the Security Assessment and Authorization environment such as system security categorization, development of security and contingency plans, security testing and evaluation, system accreditation and continuous monitoring
- Provided test and evaluation support for threat vulnerability assessments
- Following evaluation of security products, managed the development of information system security studies and reports that address areas of information system security concerns and aided in defining Requests for Information
- Defined System Security Authorization Agreements