The Win

A veterinary client secured an approval for interior remodel in just 4.5 weeks, beating Pulley's own initial forecast by over 5 weeks.

How it Happened

prepare the submittal.

He then QA'ed every submittal sheet, caught intake rejection items early, and worked with the client's design team to reformat drawings before the application was sent.

When a few minor comments came back, the team resolved them in just 4 days, securing a quick approval.

Why it Matters

For this client, one operating week represents an average of $20,000 in revenue. Saving 5 weeks equates to upwards of $100,000 in additional revenue opportunity.
