FALL 2025
Customer Success Report

Email Security Software Category

Email security software monitors a company's outbound and inbound email traffic for malicious and unwanted messages. These tools quarantine or block spam, phishing attacks, and malware. Advanced solutions also provide data loss prevention capability as well as email encryption features for outbound email.

Email security software helps to ensure staff compliance and prevent internet threats. The program funnels incoming emails through spam filters and scans messages before transmitting them across a firewall. These tools include user governance or labeling functions to determine malicious actors and stop them from communicating further. Their archiving capabilities enable enterprises to keep a log of past communications for both reference and compliance purposes.

FEATURED TESTIMONIALS

Being a high profile entity, we were receiving an inordinate number of junk emails in addition to dealing with virus concerns that were growing daily. Since 2002, MailGuard has effectively resolved both virus and spam issues for the AFL. It only took a few minutes to work out that adopting MailGuard to undertake our content filtering needs was going to actually save us money and time in people and bandwidth usage as well as improving our security.

TONY ABATE
IT MANAGER, AUSTRALIAN FOOTBALL LEAGUE

MailGuard's fully managed services deliver peace of mind. We know that that our email environment is as efficient as possible and that our systems are systems are fully protected. Another one of the biggest benefits of using MailGuard is the ease of the service. It is very easy to use, and I enjoy its simplicity.

DAVID WHITE
DIRECTOR, WHITE IT

It was very easy to setup. Email instructions were provided clearly and we didn't even need to contact their support team to complete the service provisioning. It really was that easy!

HARRY ERAWAN
IT MANAGER, CARPET COURT

We found that on average, 97 percent of email previously received was spam and we were losing time and legitimate emails through inadvertent deletion.
