" I personally am amazed at all the possibilities of the Caterease software we purchased from your company. The ability to track sales in different venues and to see what your receivables are now, as well as in the past and what the potential is for the future. One of the important traits for good management is having the ability to protect with some degree of accuracy the future of your business and then of course to react accordingly. The information that is available with your software gives that degree of precision that is needed to make an educated decision. "

I have been using Caterease since 1999 and was "always" impressed with both the program and your excellent customer service. Now with the professional (version) I have even more power and useful information at my fingertips. Most importantly though I have the flexibility to use this information in a variety of prints that I can custom design to fit any need. We started out as a small caterer/bakery and have grown into one of the largest high-end caterers in Las Vegas. IRREGARDLESS CATERING

The key is using a software to streamline operations. We made the switch to Total Party Planner because it is much more user friendly. It makes us that much more profitable. Other caterers are taking a week or two to get the menu out or get the proposal out. By and large, our process is: after qualifying meeting, they leave with complete proposal (menu, linens, china, etc.). We couldn't do this without the software.
