Customer Success Report

Inventory Management Software Category

Inventory management software helps you track, organize, and manage material purchases, product sales, and other processes. The days of using pencil and paper to track inventory are long gone. Today, you can utilize platforms based on radio-frequency identification (RFID) or barcodes to view where raw materials are placed, when shipments arrive, and when products are shipped.

Inventory management solutions track goods all through the supply chain or the part of it relevant to a company's operations. This covers all phases from warehousing to shipping, production to retail, and the movements of parts and stock in between. With inventory management software, you can minimize the effort and time spent on basic tracking, and focus on finding, analyzing, and eliminating the inefficiencies in your business model.

The key thing is that we are now very clear about where our inventory items sit. It's much easier to utilize than any other inventory system that we've seen. And because it's in the cloud, we're no longer tied to an umbilical cord to a software server. We can do our business on the road and still have full visibility no matter where we are.

With Fishbowl, it allows me to look at the whole inventory – everything – and focus strictly on those items that I'm going to be short on. And it allows me to address those concerns, those issues – try to resolve them before it actually affects production. Timing is important. Running out is not acceptable. Fishbowl allows me to take a look out and see what's going to be happening in the future. For me, that's a big advantage.

RON WATASZKO
INVENTORY MANAGER, NICHE BAKERS CORP

In a year, Fishbowl has completely transformed inventory control in my company. It has several unique features that have helped make inventory control an easy process, including its unique configurator. The configurator makes it possible to customize a bill of materials and allows you to customize the finished good for each customer.

CHRIS CONNORS
VICE PRESIDENT OF SPECIALTY SALES AND MARKETING, BACKYARD ADVENTURES

With Fishbowl, our inventory demands are known as soon as we issue a sales order. This alone allows us to see what parts need to be ordered 3-4 days earlier than with [our previous system].
