Customer Success Report

Lease Accounting Software Category

Lease accounting software efficiently handles and reduces financial risk related to lease portfolios. Further, it centralizes the lifecycles and processes of lease portfolios. The application automates the manual procedures of tracking journal entries, the audit trail of each lease, and whether a lease is a financing or operating lease. In addition, the program enables businesses to comply with IASB and FASB regulations.

Lease accounting tools prepare companies for crucial dates for financial reviews and audits. The platform typically integrates with ERP tools to automate the production of general ledger journal entries. It can also integrate with accounting and POS solutions to provide firms full visibility into their whole lease portfolio.

LeaseQuery stood out because it was designed with our needs in mind. Other software seemed geared towards end-users, not accounting professionals managing multiple clients. The software's ability to provide a check in determining lease classifications (operating vs. finance) was a crucial factor for streamlining our workflow, a main feature the other solutions lacked.

JERRY WIDJAJA
DIRECTOR OF ASSURANCE SERVICES, THE ACCOUNTANCY

LeaseQuery is just so easy to use. It's easy to roll out. It makes our disclosures easier and the reports are easy to read I've probably said easy five times LeaseQuery definitely makes life a lot easier for me.

When we saw all of the things that FinQuery could do with the calculations, and then being able to send that over rather than manually entering the data in, we just knew it was going to be a time saver for us.
